

Join 11TH TALENT MUSIC SUMMER COURSES & OPERA FESTIVAL

6 – 13 July 2026 • Brescia, Italy

Discover one of Europe's leading summer programs, where world-class training combines with exceptional performance opportunities.

Set in the beautiful city of Brescia, the Academy provides a stimulating environment for young musicians seeking artistic growth, professional experience, and international exchange.

Study with Elite International Artists

The Academy brings together distinguished professors, concert artists, and pedagogues from leading orchestras, conservatories, and international stages (Ewa Pobłocka, Michel Béroff, Andrea Bonatta, Bernd Goetzke, Piotr Paleczny etc.). Each participant receives:

- Three hours of individual lessons (four 45-minute sessions)
- Guaranteed daily practice rooms
- Personalized guidance on repertoire, technique, and artistic development

Performance & Career Opportunities in a Prestigious Festival Setting

The Academy's festival atmosphere provides unique exposure to audiences, collaborators, and industry professionals. Students have multiple performance opportunities, including:

- Participation in 60 public concerts throughout the summer at prestigious venues
- Soloist performances with the festival's professional orchestra for competition winners
- Weekly Talent Music Summer Courses Competition awards scholarships totaling €800
- Recording Prize: selected winners record professionally in March 2027 with experienced sound engineers

The total participation fee of €570 includes the opportunities listed above, in addition to assistance with accommodation in Brescia, visa support, and administrative guidance throughout the stay.
